

Christian Schock, Executive Director, serves as chief planner and economic development representative, coordinating the Commission's staff consultant team, grant writing and programming budget and intergovernmental coordination across the County and 9 political jurisdictions.

Mr. Schock has over 14 years of professional experience in both the built and natural environments including project management roles for the City of Los Angeles Housing Department, the State of Illinois Department of Natural Resources and served as Tidelands Trustee for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Department of Environmental Protection from 2000-2002 with direct oversight of waterways permitting for major Boston Harbor developments and served as the primary regulator for waterways permitting of the Central Artery/Tunnel project or "big dig", the largest highway project in US history.

Most recently, Mr. Schock served as an expert economic development consultant to the US Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) for long-range recovery planning in various disaster areas including post-hurricane Florida where he consulted on many large-scale economic development efforts. Mr. Schock holds bachelor (BUP) and master (MCP) degrees from the University of Cincinnati- College of Design, Art, Architecture and Planning (DAAP) where he also served as University Student Body President of the campus' 35,000 undergraduates, has an additional master degree (MSc) in Development Management/Economics from the London School of Economics in the United Kingdom; and served as a Headquarters Intern for the United Nations Centre for Human Settlements (UN-HABITAT) in 1999 in Nairobi and New York City.

Mr. Schock has been a member of the American Planning Association since 1994 and a member of the American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP) since 2000, a member of the International Economic Development Council, an associate member of the American Institute of Architects (Assoc.AIA), the Boston Society of Architects, the Urban Land Institute, and the Royal Town Planning Institute (Assoc.RTPI) during his career which has spanned 10 US States, the UK, and the People's Republic of China- where he lived from 2004-2006.