Zoning Complaint / Violation Process

Submitting a Complaint: Clinton County Zoning Department investigates all Zoning related complaints. When submitting a complaint, please provide as much information as possible. If the activity or condition is easily visible from your property, it helps if you give permission for a Zoning Inspector to walk on your property to view the activity or condition.

Inspection Process: A Zoning Inspector will inspect the property. If a violation exists, the owner will be notified and given 30 days to comply and to correct the violation.

Enforcement: If the violation is not corrected, the Zoning Inspector will refer the violation to the County Prosecutor for further action.
