DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

Family Questionnaires

The Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities (DODD) wants to know how families feel about the early intervention services they receive.

DODD has mailed a questionnaire directly to the caregiver of every child who was receiving early intervention services in Clinton county on July 1.

When you receive your survey, you can either complete the paper survey and return by mail or you can complete the survey on-line through Survey Monkey (link is on the paper survey).

Your local early intervention team encourages you to complete the survey and return by October 27.

Your feedback is very important now and always. If you have any questions about the
